$5,000 TO WIN LATE MODEL EXTRAVAGANZA
RETURNS TO CANAAN'S AWESOME ASPHALT IN 2012

Exciting news is flowing out of the Canaan Fair Speedway's headquarters in the early off-season as it has been announced that the 2nd Annual $5,000 to win, ACT legal, Late Model Sportsman event will return to Canaan Fair Speedway on Saturday, May 12, 2012. Last years event saw a full house of racefans enjoy a great event which turned into a two day event due to rain after qualifying.

"I am very pleased to announce that the event will be returning in 2012. It was a sellout crowd the first time, and then more fans came back for the features than on the original date in 2011, and we are hoping for bigger and better things this coming season" stated General Manager, Dick Therrien. The race was awesome as Brad Leighton led a good share of the race until he had a tire go down and coasted to a halt in turn four. Joey Pole took over from there and held off several challenges to claim the $5,000 first place prize. Fourteen drivers finished on the lead lap in the 150 green flag lap event. This year's purse will once again be close to $20,000 with a nice payout offered for the entire field.

This is just one of the great events scheduled for Canaan Fair Speedway in 2012. The new schedule is being finalized and rules are just about ready to be posted with very few changes coming in 2012 after a very successful 2011 racing season.
